

Foster or Adoptive Home Needed!

Urgent: Axel needs your help now

- Axel is a 55 pound 4 year-old German Shorthaired Pointer
- He's a special dog who needs a special person
- He has some quirky behaviors, such as fixating on lights, running in circles
- Axel loves to run and play ball
- He's eager to please and learn
- Axel needs to be the only dog (or be able to be kept separate) but is able to live successfully with dog-savvy cats.

If you would like to foster Axel, NorCal GSP Rescue provides medication and vet care, you provide the food, love, and basic training. If you would like to adopt Axel, his adoption fee has been sponsored so that his new family can use their funds towards training. Axel is crate-trained, house-trained, and can be safely left at home while you are at work or doing errands.
